

STEAM, GAS, CANVAS

Day's Doings Among Coast, Bay and River Craft.

FOG DOMINATES THEM ALL

Schedule Disarranged—Sea Going Ships Detained—Whole Coast Enveloped—Local Boats Tied Up—Craft Aground and Craft Afloat.

It was reported here at 2 p. m. yesterday that the steamer Telegraph was hard aground on the banks of the Willamette river, somewhere between Portland and St. John.

Lost Is Found.

Divers who have been searching at San Francisco for the remains of the Pacific mail steamship Rio de Janeiro, which was wrecked in the entrance to this harbor several years ago, announced yesterday the success of their quest.

Freight Only.

The Costa Rica, which replaced the St. Paul on the Portland San Francisco run, arrived Tuesday night in her new capacity of a purely freight carrier.

Big Business. It is estimated by local steamship men that the Nome fleet this year carried 45,000 tons of general merchandise and 4,000,000 feet of lumber.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM

The five-masted schooner Louis, with 900,000 feet of lumber aboard for San Francisco, left down at 2 p. m., yesterday under tow of the bar tug Wallula, and went to sea.

The Alliance and Whittier did not get out yesterday. They both went to the bar, but the rough conditions there forbade their crossing out.

Captain J. J. Anderson, of the O. R. & N. steamer T. J. Potter is laying off for a day or so at Portland, to welcome a strange little girl at his home.

The German ship Adolf and the German barkentine Mary Winkleman are due down from Portland, outward bound.

The steamship Senator, from San Francisco, was sighted off the bar yesterday afternoon before the fog took possession of the coast.

The Harvest Queen went up to Portland yesterday afternoon, with the British ships Kynance and Dunboyne on either bow.

The coal laden, British ship Blytheswood was hauled into the Elmore coal dock yesterday afternoon, and will immediately discharge 800 tons of her cargo, before going on to Portland.

The oil-tank steamer Asuncion came down from Portland yesterday morning and left out immediately. She is the only steamer to get out yesterday.

The crew of the Simpson schooner Churchill, lately in from China, was paid off yesterday, the settlement involving $802.97 and the payroll included two officers and eight men.

The lighthouse tender Columbine is busy blowing out her boilers and putting things in ship-shape generally. She is the "dandy" of Astoria waters.

The Simpson fleet at Knappton is now represented by the Volunteer, Encore, Alunmia and Churchill; all loading outward cargoes.

The Lurline made good time yesterday. She left here for Portland at 1:20 a. m., and got back last night at 9:30 o'clock.

The fog is the heaviest and most penetrating of the season. It involves the whole coast from San Diego to Victoria, and goes a hundred miles inland.

The steamship Olympia was to have left Portland yesterday afternoon, for this port, San Francisco and Los Angeles. If she did, the fog has probably put her to anchor somewhere and she will be at the Callender pier sometime today.

The steamer Graf Waldersee had a second accident yesterday, at New York which will delay her departure until tonight. While moving out from the wharf a rope became entangled in the propeller, and the big liner, laden with many passengers, had to be towed back to her dock.

The British steamer Bavaria, bound from Barry to Bordeaux, has been lost off Belle Isle, France. Part of her crew has been landed at Noir Montier, France. The captain and fourteen men are missing.

The Navy Department has been informed that the charges for passage through the Suez canal of the floating drydock built for the Philippines will be about $20,000 or to give favorable consideration to the Suez route, and, in fact, all preparations contemplate that route.

DAYS OF DIZZINESS.

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, sideache, backache; Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders.

All tell you plainly the kidneys are sick.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

J. Carson, employed at the Portland Lumber Co., foot of Lincoln street, who resides at 366 First street, Portland, Oregon, says: "I was feeling miserable with a depressing lameness around the small of my back all last summer. At first I did not pay much attention to it, but it continued to grow worse and finally became so bad that I thought I would have to lay off work.
